Hymn #123: (Please Stand) “Jesus Christ is Risen Today” with Organ/Piano Intro

Children’s Sermon

Call to Worship:

Leader: We thought You were dead. We thought the cross was the end. We thought that when the stone rolled over the tomb, that was it.

People: But the cross is empty, and the stone is rolled away.
Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Leader: We thought You had said Your final word. We thought those with the power had won. We thought that when You cried out, that was it.

People: But Your final cry was only the beginning,
Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Leader: We thought the story was finished. We thought that hope had ended. We thought that when the tomb was sealed, that was it.

People: But the story has just begun; hope is newly born; the tomb is empty,
Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Call to Confession

Confession: Merciful Father, as we celebrate the resurrection of Christ this Easter day, we are reminded that we could so easily be counted among the doubters hiding in the shadow cast by that cruel cross. We are like Peter, and openly deny You and Your call to do Your work, even as we long for Your presence. There are times, Lord, when we doubt, when sin seems like a barrier that separates us from You and we do not have the strength to break it down. How can we forget that it is You who has rolled away the stone and revealed the empty tomb? It was Christ who broke that barrier so we will never again be separated from You. Remind us daily that Christ has died for us and risen for us. Amen
